

"Catholic Schools: Faith, Academics, Service"

Catholic Schools Week is an annual national celebration of the important role that Catholic elementary and secondary schools across the country play in providing a values-added education for America's young people. Catholic schools are proud of their educational network that emphasizes intellectual, spiritual, moral, physical, and social values in their students. (NCEA Website)

Catholic Schools Week 2012

Sunday, January 29th: Open House: 8:15 am – 11:00 am

- ▼ 7th/8th Grade Confirmation Candidate Covenant Mass, 9:00 am

Monday, January 30th: Family Appreciation Day, St. Richard "Blue and White" Day

- ▼ Parents may visit the classrooms from 11:00 - 11:30 am.
- ▼ Lunch within each family in O'Brien Hall from 11:30 - 12:05.
- ▼ Visitation ends at 12:10 pm. Classes resume.
- ▼ Students may come to school in their St. Richard blue and white attire:
This includes sports uniforms, t-shirts, etc.

Tuesday, January 31st: Student Appreciation Day: "Sports" Day

- ▼ No Homework night for students
- ▼ Student may come to school in their favorite "sports" attire.
- ▼ 8th Grade Region Mass. 8th Graders should come to school in their uniforms and may change when we return to school.

Wednesday, February 1st: Faculty Appreciation Luncheon

- ▼ Students may come in their favorite "Hawaiian or Spring Break Appropriate for school attire.

Thursday, February 2nd: Get Ready for the Olympics, "Olympic Colors Day"

- ▼ Each class will decide the Olympic color for their class and the students may come to school dressed in those colors. Homerooms teachers will let parents know the class color via the portal.
- ▼ Silly Olympic Games provided by the 8th Grade, 1:45 – 2:45 pm

Friday, February 3rd: Grandparents'/Grandfriends' Mass and Breakfast

Noon Dismissal, Faculty Meeting

- ▼ Students will sit with their Grandparents/Grandfriends at Mass.
- ▼ After Mass, there will be breakfast in O'Brien Hall. All students will sit and eat with their Grandparents/Grandfriends. Sponsored by Home and School.
- ▼ After breakfast, the families can visit the hallways and classrooms.
- ▼ All visitation ends at 10:00 am.
- ▼ All students should come to school in their very best uniforms. Normally, this is a Spirit Day, however, we want to show our Grandparents and Friends how nice we look in our uniforms.